

BANKING AND FINANCE CAREERS WEEK

From October 13 to 17, we will put the spotlight on careers in banking and finance ! Sciences Po prepares students for a variety of career opportunities in this sector. If you want to know what a private equity analyst gets up to, what a financial analyst or a controller does, how ESG consultants spend their day... Sciences Po graduates will talk about their experience and daily life and will share tips and tricks to find an internship or a job in the sector. Don't miss it!

Les métiers en banque finance : nos diplômés témoignent

Tuesday 14 November 13h-14h (in French)
28, rue Saint-Guillaume (1st floor)
