

Africa Online Careers Fair

On 6 & 7 April 2022, Ashesi University and Sciences Po invite you to participate in the #Africa Online Careers Fair. Come to learn more about opportunities on the African continent.

It will allow participating firms to:

- access the CV library of all students and graduates registered before the Forum starts and up to 15 days after the Forum ends
- provide students with information on the activities, values, opportunities and recruitment process of apprenticeship through online group presentations
- recruit your future apprentices, during individual meetings scheduled on the platform

ARE YOU RECRUITING ON THE AFRICAN CONTINENT?

Recruit our high potential students on 6 and 7 April 2022

An online forum, how does it work?

3 good reasons to attend an online forum:

- Gaining access to the CV library of all the students looking for an internship/apprenticeship contract before the forum starts and up to 15 days after the forum ends
- Inform students through an online presentation about the activities, values, opportunities and recruitment process of apprenticeships in your firm
- Recruit your future trainees/apprentices during individual meetings scheduled on the platform

Follow an information session about the Seekube platform (via zoom)

During 30/45 minutes, we will show you how Seekube works: how to create your virtual stand, how to add collaborators to your stand, how to post your offers, how to make appointments....we will also answer all your questions.

- Session in English: Thursday 10 March, 14h - 14h45 sign up.
