Sye Yuet Loy graduated in 2014 from the Master Governing the Large Metropolis. Now she works at Tiktok's Trust & Safety Team as an Implementation Manager.

What is your current position?

I am a Policy Implementation Manager for the Asia Pacific region at Tiktok's Trust & Safety Team. Tiktok has Community Guidelines to support a fun and safe space for users, and this is achieved through strong policies and a worldwide team of moderators. I work with dedicated colleagues to develop robust policies and to roll them out smoothly around the world.

How did you secure the role?

I was interested in the role that technology plays in issues of child safety. So I applied to Tiktok! I had other relevant work experience for the skillsets required of this role. I also had supportive family and friends, which gave me the courage to try somewhere new.
